MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Case 32254 -- Fred L. Launags

1. At 1600 PST on 2 December 1968 I received a phone call from a woman who identified herself as Ruth Meizner, Personnel Office, Weyerhaeuser Company, Tacoma, Washington, Telephone FU 3-3361, extension 1233. Mrs. Meizner had obtained the phone number of the Portland Resident Agency from my home where she had called inasmuch as I had been listed by subject as a reference.

2. Mrs. Meizner informed me that a Fred Launags was then in her office (at the time of the call he was in a waiting room outside) and had informed her he had been promised a job by Weyerhaeuser Company and had consequently been put on an airplane in Washington, D.C., and flown to the Northwest. However, upon his arrival he was told Weyerhaeuser Company could not employ him.

3. Mrs. Meizner continued by stating that Launags was quite worked up at the time of the call and was demanding to see a director of the Weyerhaeuser Company. She was informed that we had offered to assist Launags in obtaining employment but due to his habit of working but short times and walking off the job we no longer had any interest in him. She was informed that we would pass on this information to our Seattle office and that a representative there might contact her.

4. Immediately following Mrs. Meizner's call Chief, ☐ Office was contacted and informed of the above information. He stated that he would call a close contact of his who is said to be a vice president of Weyerhaeuser Company and inform him concerning Launags.
